A. CAUSES OF INSECURITY

i. Inter-tribal/communal conflicts

Tribal conflicts fueled by ethnic incitement remain a major security challenge in traditionally cattle rearing areas. Though it is challenging to discuss tribal conflict in total isolation from cattle rustling in Kenyan communities, some forms of conflicts are occur as result of political incitements among others. The year 2015 saw conflicts with ethnic undertones in different parts of the country more so in counties of Samburu, Marsabit and Turkana.

ii. Terrorism

Terrorism continues to be a threat to National Security in the country. The year 2015 was characterized by fewer terrorist attacks. However there was one high magnitude attack at the Garissa University which left 149 persons dead. Other attacks were reported in Mandera and Lamu Counties.

The Kenyan security agents made great progress in curbing terrorism. In the year 2015; a total number of 30 incidents of terror were reported in 2015 as compared to 47 incidents in 2014. This was a drop in 17 cases or 36%. A total number of 31 terror suspects were arrested in the year 2015.

The year 2015 also recorded the highest number of deaths (205) and injuries (322), as compared to 173 and 179 respectively in 2014. The Garissa University killing accounted for most of the deaths recording 150 deaths and 253 injuries. Lamu County also recorded a higher number of deaths (6) in 2015 as compared to (3) in 2014.

Figures on terrorist related incidents in the year 2013, 2014 and 2015

1	2013	31	88	227
2	2014	47	173	179
3	2015	30	205	322

iii. Illegal Immigrants

The inflow of illegal immigrants has proved to be a challenge to national security. Most are unaccounted for and can enter the country with ulterior motives such as perpetration of terrorist activities and dealing in illegal firearms. The crackdown on illegal immigrants in the year 2015 led to the arrest of 1878 illegal immigrants, majority being Ethiopians recording 1085 aliens which accounted for of 57% of all the aliens arrested in the whole year.

iv. Radicalization of Youth in Mombasa

Though incidents of radicalization remained minimal in the year 2015, radicalization still remained one of the most significant threats to security. The extremists target poor unemployed youth and mostly from the counties of Mombasa, Lamu and Kwale.

v. Political Activities

The year 2015 saw an increase in political activity where politicians use the media to build up tension through utterances that are deemed inciting. Social media was most widely used to spread hate messages; others include cell phone text messages and leaflets.

The public seems unaware of the impact of hate speech. There is need for the public to recognize the malignant effect of inflammatory speech and how these can be used to manipulated them commit violence.

As a democratic society, Kenya values freedom of expression as the cornerstone for a vibrant civil society, and for sustainable development. However, these freedoms do not take precedence over other people's rights and responsibilities enshrined in the Constitution. Kenya's history proves that hate speech propagated by politicians has led to distrust and disunity and consequently ethnic warfare. Great strides have been made to address this issue by the office of the Director of Public Prosecutions (DPP), the Director of Criminal Investigations (DCI) and the National Cohesion and Integration Commission (NCIC) where politicians making inciting remarks and spreading hate messages have been arrested and charged.

It is instructive for all Kenyans to step up and support the fight against hate speech. The judiciary in particular, should place policies and procedures that will ensure that cases brought before them are concluded expeditiously.

vi. Cattle Rustling

The incidents of cattle rustling in Kenya have been a perennial problem involving pastoral communities mostly in the North Rift and Eastern regions of Kenya, but 2015 saw a slight unusual change of trend with the Southern Rift Valley and Kisumu/Nandi County border recording incidents. These involved pastoral communities compete for grazing fields and watering points.

A new dimension has emerged where livestock are stolen for commercial reasons as opposed to culture. Cattle stolen for commercial reasons pose a greater challenge to recovery efforts as they are immediately disposed off and enter the consumer markets.

The incidents of cattle rustling has been further compounded by instability in the neighbouring states of South Sudan and Somalia. The situation in these states has given rise to proliferation of small arms that find their way into the country through porous borders and illegal immigrants fleeing for safety. Use of firearms for cattle thefts accounted for most of the cases. Much can also be said of the harsh terrain over which cattle are driven and directed after they have been stolen. Harsh terrains make it hard for security operatives to follow stock stolen by locals versed with the areas.

However, the year 2015 recorded more achievements in combating incidents of cattle rustling as compared to previous years. This followed a raft of proactive measures and strategies put in place. Success can be attributed to the governments’ unrelenting efforts to mop up illegal firearms from persons holding them illegally. Also, Joint operations involving various security units have been launched in places such as Baragoi where these incidences had been common.

There was a drop in cattle rustling incidents in the year 2015 as compared to the year 2014 in both number and magnitude. Incidents of cattle rustling were reported in 4 counties in the year 2015 as compared to 5 counties in the previous year. A total number of 56 incidents were reported in the year as compared to 84 cases in 2014 which was a drop in 28 cases or 33%.

2014	84	35	48	18251	5312
2015	56	24	3	24830	1834

vii. Proliferation of Small Arms and Light Weapons (SALW)

The proliferation of small arms from neighbouring countries with internal strife, especially Somalia and Southern Sudan continues to adversely affect the country’s internal security. Police officers conducted operations to mop up illegal firearms where a total of 232 firearms and 3188 ammunitions were recovered by police as listed below.

Comparative Figures of Firearms/Ammunition Recovered/Surrendered in Kenya in 2014/2015

391	232	1	1	5166	3188	7	7

viii. Drug trafficking

It is believed that increased volumes of heroin from Pakistan and Iran, and cocaine from Latin America, transit through Kenya, mainly to Europe and North America. Major international drug trafficking networks, headed mainly by West Africans but also involving Kenyans, are responsible for the bulk of cocaine and heroin trafficked into and through the country. The drug lords have established local and extensive international links to facilitate their global reach, something that the Kenyan law-enforcement authorities find to be a challenge. Domestic seizures of cocaine are negligible and bear no relation to the actual cocaine flows.

Tables below showing the seizure of drugs trafficked in Kenya in the year 2015 and a breakdown of suspects arrested.

ix. Illicit Brews

Though the subject of illicit brews can also be viewed under the rubric of drug trafficking, the vice has been a thorn in the flesh to Kenya necessitating the need to be given special attention. Illicit brews in Kenya have led to many deaths and incapacitation as a direct effect and also a long term effect of making their partakers unfit for any gainful economic activity thus resulting to crime. Following a presidential directive, crackdown on illicit brews and second generation alcohol started in earnest on 3rd July, 2015. This resulted in the arrest of 17233 manufacturers, distributors, retailers and consumers. A total of 15,951,301 Litres of illicit brew were also netted.

However, the crackdown on the manufacture, storage, sale and consumption of illegal brews has been hampered by many court orders issued against the police.

x. Smuggling of contraband goods

Smuggling of contraband goods has been rampant along the Kenya-Somalia, Kenya-Uganda and Kenya-Tanzania borders. The flooding of Markets by contraband goods has led to heavy loss of Government revenue. Police officers jointly with other law enforcement agencies conducted crackdown and seized the goods as indicated below;

SEIZURE OF SMUGGLED CONTRABAND GOODS IN THE YEAR 2015

B. POLICE OFFICERS KILLED WHILE ON DUTY

Violent attacks on Police Officers reduced during the period under review 2015 as compared to the year 2014. The notable deadly incidents occurred at Lamu and Mandera counties where Terrorists were targeting security personnel on transit using Landmines and IEDs. Other incidents included officers shot in line of duty while responding to robbery incidents and others criminal activities. These incidents resulted in either deaths or injuries to security personnel. A total 28 officers were killed and 102 others injured.

C. KENYA – SOMALI BORDER INSECURITY

The conflicts in the neighbouring countries have led to influx of Refugees and Proliferation of Small Arms and Light Weapons. Terrorists have taken advantage of the situation and created terrorist cells within the refugee camps which impact negatively on the security of the country. Due to this the Police conducted swoops in the Dadaab, Hagadera and Ifo refugee camps to flush out aliens, and with the help of the KDF the vast porous border has remained calm. In October 2015 an operation dubbed ‘Operation Linda Boni’ was launched in Boni Forest to flush out Al Shabaab terrorists who use it as a haven for hiding.

D. ROAD SAFETY

In 2015 the total recorded cases of accidents were 5277 cases as compared to 5661 cases reported in 2014 .This indicates a decrease by 384 cases or 7% . The total number of fatal victims recorded was 3064 as compared to 2910 victims in 2014 statistics. Though there was a decrease in the number of accidents, it is worth noting that the number of victims involved in those accidents increased by 159 or 1% as compared to 2014. The measures put in place by the Government can be attributed to great reduction of accidents. These measures include;

- i.Introduction of tamper proof speed governors for all PSV vehicles;
- ii.Enforcement of the alcohol breathalyzers (Alco-Blow);
- iii.Acquisition and utilization of speed guns on identified accident hot spot areas and
- iv. Heavy fines and severe punishment of the offenders.

However, more need to be done to reduce the fatalities associated with these accidents.

A. CORRUPTION

It is evident that for the police to redeem its image in the eyes of the public due decorum must be practiced by police officers. This has always reduced public trust in the services provided by the police and in so doing make it difficult for public – police partnerships like community policing and recently the Nyumba Kumi initiative. In order to ensure accountability and ethical conduct by police officers, measures have been put in place in liaison with other stakeholder’s e.g. the Ethics and Anti-Corruption Commission to carry out surveillance and arrest officers engaging in corrupt practices. Further to punitive measures taken, cases that emerge with little evidence that do not warrant prosecution are dealt with departmentally.

The measures put in place to curb corruption in the National Police Service include; enhanced Management and Supervision; Sensitization of officers through weekly lectures on issue of integrity and code of ethics; and arrest of suspects

B. MEASURES PUT IN PLACE TO CURB CRIMES

- i. Greater utilization of intelligence through community policing.
- ii. Expedited investigation and prosecution of cases.
- iii. Rapid response through increased mobile and foot patrols
- iv. Apprehension of traffic offenders and subsequent prosecution through instant mobile courts.
- v. Security in major vital installations and Government buildings has been beefed up.
- vi. Border security has been boosted at all entry/ exit points in collaboration with other Kenyan security agencies.
- vii. Communal intervention of local peace committees to forge peaceful co-existence and reduce tensions between the communities.

C. WAY FORWARD/ RECOMMENDATIONS

- i. Increase the Police population ratio (1:450) – UN standards
- ii. Equipping Police with modern investigation tools i.e. forensic laboratory
- iii. Modernize ICT/CCTV Infrastructure'
- iv. Acquisition of equipment like the Armoured Personnel Carriers (APC's), night vision goggles and the bullet proof vests for police operations.
- v. On Election Related Crimes police to crack the whip on politicians who promote voter bribery, hate speech and Ethnic Polarization
